

THE CENTRAL ASSOCIATION OF BEE-KEEPERS.

Bringing Science to the Beekeeper

SPRING MEETING

on

SATURDAY MARCH 13th 2004

at

Kings College, London, Franklin-Wilkins Building, Stamford Street, London SE1 9NN*

Programme:-

- 11.15 a.m. Welcome.
- 11.30 a.m. Peter Harvey, Bees, Wasps and Ants Recording Society: "Invertebrates and the importance of brownfield sites".
- 12.30 p.m. Lunch. Please make your own arrangements.
- 2.15 p.m. Dr Ian Kitching, Natural History Museum: "The biology of Death's-Head Hawkmoths, lepidopteran kleptoparasites of honey bees".
- 3.15 p.m. Lizzie Cant, Rothamsted Research: "Hedges and roads: guiding pollination and increasing plant gene flow?"
- 4.15 p.m. Close of meeting.

All welcome - Admission free but voluntary exit collection.

Please let the Secretary know in advance (Tel: 0208 977 5867) or Email: norman.carreck@bbsrc.ac.uk if you intend coming to the meeting in order that we can provide the Kings College Security with a list of names.

* Nearest underground: Waterloo. Map at:-

<http://www.kcl.ac.uk/maps/waterloo.html>