

The National Honey Show

At Kensington Town Hall, Horton Street, London. 14-16 November 2002

with International Honey Classes

From Mo Davies Publicity Officer
The National Honey Show
Registered Charity No.233656
020 8940 6070
mojane4@onetel.net.uk

PRESS STATEMENT FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

In this Golden Jubilee Year.
The National Honey Show 2002 with International Classes features for three days at Kensington Town Hall, Horton Street, London, W8 7NX.

This Wimbledon of BeeKeeping attracts interest, exhibits and entries from UK and abroad, from all ages and sectors of communities.

Here is to be experienced exchanges of ideas, demonstrations of master skills, a brilliant lecture convention, spectacular displays, trade and other stands featuring all the appliances, crafts, information, sales of every product of the beehive in an exciting, friendly, festive atmosphere.

Extensive opportunities are afforded at this famous show and venue to see and learn about the fascinating, rewarding art of beekeeping, to view related crafts, consumables and purchase a fantastic range of equipment and gifts.

Beekeeping Associations, Organisations and Traders are invited to participate in promotional activity relating to this show in this Golden Jubilee Year by contacting the publicity officer.

As given on www.honeyshow.co.uk:-

Opening ceremony: His Honour Judge David Smith QC
Thursday 14 November 1.45pm

Admission:

Non-members £10 (Tickets in advance @ £8).
Members and accompanied children, 16 yrs and under, free.
2 for 1 and low cost entry to non-beekeepers/public/families on Sat.

Show Times:

Thursday 14 November 2.00 pm - 7.00 pm
Friday 15 November 9.30 am - 7.00 pm
Saturday 16 November 9.30 am - 5.00 pm

The National Honey Show